Literati 2019: Contemplations

The seventh annual undergraduate conference on language, literature, and the humanities
Sunday, April 7th, 2019 at The University of Wisconsin-Madison

Contemplation. Reverie. Introspection.
Meditation. Observation. Ponderance.

This year, the conference theme is Contemplations. A theme of Contemplations invites readers and writers to venture into a deeper form of reflective thought and explore new perspectives. The result of your observations can take a variety of shapes, including, but not limited to; inner musings, thoughts, conflicts and ideas.

If you have written a contemplative literary analysis or creative work (including prose, poetry, etc.), we encourage you to submit to the conference. Send all submissions to museuw@gmail.com. Before submitting, please review all submission guidelines at museliterati.com/submit. We look forward to reading your work!

Submission Deadline is March 3rd, 2019
